Testimonial

Well I have to tell ya. It's been a pretty hectic day round here. My previous Host who I thought was good messed me up big time So I pretty much Fired then so to speak.
That was long before you all have gotton back to me.

But I have to tell you regardless of the time limit in which you replied this time,
I had pretty much decided ahead of time to move all my active domains over to you all.
And do you know what was the deciding factor in my decision.
Well to be Blunt it was your attitude towards a new member,
I guess you would call me that.

You all were very nice.
You actually read my emails, some hosting companies seem like they don't.
You responded back to me in a timely manner.

I like that I will be able to send out at least 500 email a hour for right now. Possibly later on I will upgrade to a better package.
I like who referred me to you all.

In all I believe I have found the perfect hosting company for my domains.

I am going to make a note of this and tell all my various associates about your hosting.

I could probably come up with a whole lot of more reasons, but you all, most likely, do get the picture.

You by far should pat your team on the back.

For having such a great team to represent your company.

The only thing that Puzzles me. Is why are you not listed in the top ten hosting companies. I think you all should be at the No, 1 Position.

As soon as I can afford it I will be upgrading to paying yearly. But at the present time things are somewhat in the grey area.

Hopefully things will pick up.

I no it's probably hard for everyone at this point. But things have to get better sooner or later.

Well Good Evening to you all & may God Bless

From a Xtremely Happy member

Niches Rus
